BELO HORIZONTE: AMAZING IN DIVERSITY

The capital of Minas Gerais brings a beautiful combination of cultural contrasts. On one side, the state's traditions, including the most diversified gastronomy in the country – which awarded the city with the Creative City of Gastronomy title by UNESCO in 2019 – and the hospitality of mineiro people. On the other side, the creativity and innovation of cultural expressions which move the routine of locals and visitors.

What makes Belo Horizonte so special is its creative power towards resignification and occupation of public spaces. One example is Sapucaí Street, in Floresta neighborhood, which gathers hype bars and restaurants in a relaxed environment. The Old New Market is another highlight, with its hallways ripe with stores, decorated with the traditional cobogós, as well as gastronomic establishments of all kinds. Another place that has been talked about by the people is Galeria São Vicente, with bars and restaurants specialized in drinks, wines and appetizers.

On the streets, the event that catches the eyes of the people is Belo Horizonte's Carnival. Beyond the famous street blocks, BH's party also counts with stages, Samba Schools and Blocos Caricatos parades, its official opening with Kandandu – the meeting between afro-blocks and the election of the Momesque Court. Democratic and plural, the folies are free and you can find blocks hoisting the LGBTQIAPN+ flags, such as Garotas Solteiras, Abalô-caxi and Corte Devassa.

The LGBTQIAPN+ scene in Belo Horizonte is like the metropolis itself: diverse, warm, inclusive and full of cultural and leisure opportunities. Gays, lesbians, bisexuals, trans and heterosexuals enjoy all of the cultural spaces, creating an intense and attractive circuit.

Beyond the diverse and beating cultural scene, Belo Horizonte also promotes and strengthens policies for LGBTQIAPN+ individuals. To that end, the Office of Policies for the LGBTQIAPN+ People and the LGBTQIAPN+ Reference Center were established, among other institutions which embrace the rainbow flags. The city also has support centers such as the LGBTQIAPN+ Reference Center.

This booklet is an invitation for all those who want to discover inclusive, plural and safe places, which provide an unmatched experience in the Minas Gerais capital city. After all, Belo Horizonte celebrates and values diversity.

THE LGBTQIAPN+ UNIVERSE IN BELO HORIZONTE

NIGHTLIFE

Belo Horizonte's nightlife is vibrant, with the most diverse options of bars, restaurants, concert halls, nightclubs and open-air parties. It is not by chance that Belo Horizonte is known as the World Capital of Bars and Pubs. There are many options. Among the LGBTQIAPN+ establishments of the Minas Gerais capital, the clubs are the ones more spread out. Houses can be found at Savassi, City Center, Santo Antônio, Barro Preto and many other neighborhoods. Dduck and Gis Clubs are examples of places dedicated towards the LGBTQIAPN+ audience.

The list of LGBTQIAPN+-friendly establishments is massive. It features the most famous for their drinks such as Santeria Bar, all the way to the classic karaoke of Bar da Cácia, passing by Café com Letras at Savassi and the several options of bars inside Edifício Maletta building – home of Belo Horizonte's bohemia. Not to mention the places offering club parties, like Gruta and DeputaMadre Club.

PARTIES

Parties and urban takeovers usually mix together and are also part of the city's calendar. The genres are varied and cater to all tastes: from electronic music to funk, without forgetting, of course, the pop.

Among them, these are the highlights:

SPORTS

The sporting universe also counts with representatives of the LGBTQIAPN+ cause in Belo Horizonte. One example is Bhabixas, a mixed sports group which has soccer, volleyball and handball teams, while also aiming to create a receptive and safe space for those who want to slay, be it in practicing sports or cheering with the crowd. Another group working with sports is the exciting "Gaymada", the queer version of the classic dodgeball, which for 10 years gathers people from all ages, races, gender identities and sexual orientations.

COLLECTIVES AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Belo Horizonte is also in the spotlight for having groups, collectives and projects which aim towards fostering, qualifying and supporting the LGBTQIAPN+ population. Some of these developments attract attention for the work they provide. Get to meet them:

Coletivo Toda Deseo

Since 2013, Toda Deseo develops its scenic works from reflections on identities and their differences, with special attention towards issues related to the LGBTQIAPN+ community. Know more at: <http://www.instagram.com/todadeseo>

LGBTQIAPN+ PRIDE PARADE OF BELO HORIZONTE

Belo Horizonte is also home to one of the biggest LGBTQIAPN+ Pride Parades in Brazil. Belo Horizonte's Parade, the largest cultural and political manifestation of the state of Minas Gerais, is an act of empowerment and visibility for lesbians, gays, bisexuals, transvestites, transexuals and transgenders. The main stage for the Minas Gerais capital celebration of diversity is Praça da Estação, where drag queen, music and dance groups artistic activities are held until the departure of the parade, led by sound trucks in a path that adds color to two of the main avenues of the city.

Belo Horizonte City Hall is co-organizer of the event, which is held by Centro de Luta Pela Livre Orientação Sexual de Minas Gerais (Center to Fight for the Free Sexual Orientation in Minas Gerais CELLOS-MG).

BELO HORIZONTE CARNIVAL

Originated in spontaneous popular manifestations, Belo Horizonte's Carnival has as one of its main attractions its democratic and plural essence. The folies, which are spread over all the regions of the city, brings millions of revelers to the Minas Gerais capital, making Belo Horizonte a destination recognized for being one of the best Carnivals in Brazil.

To make this festivity each time more responsible and citizen wise, Belo Horizonte's Carnival has principles such as: dialogue, sustainability, innovation, inclusion, accessibility, diversity and decentralization. They are popular folies, fluid, organic, and recognized by their high standards of safety and satisfaction among the revelers.

DISCOVER OUR GASTRONOMY

Belo Horizonte has an authentic love story with food, one which was recognized in 2019 with the designation to the UNESCO's Creative Cities Network. With roots spread deep in the countryside of the state, from where the first inhabitants of the city came, Belo Horizonte's cuisine concentrates diverse knowledge and ingredients and it is the result of exchanges between black people, indigenous and immigrants across generations, something that at present sums up with technical innovations.

The local cuisine is versatile and democratic, offering the simpler dishes up to the more sophisticated. Common delicacies are based on cheese, fish, poultry, beef, grains and greens. The most famous drinks are coffee, chachaça and beer. The most famous desserts are fruit sweets and dulce de leite. Along with the delicious dishes, the sympathy and welcoming service perfectly complete the experience.

Those ingredients can be found in the traditional markets of Belo Horizonte. In them, you will find fresh groceries and produce, but you can also try drinks and traditional dishes. The most famous is Mercado Central, considered one of the best in the world, sharing the top of the rankings along with Mercat de la Boqueria, in Barcelona, and the Borough Market in London. One other that is rising the charts is Mercado Novo, with cool bars and restaurants.

Belo Horizonte also holds the title of “World Capital of Bars and Pubs”, having the highest number of bars per inhabitant in Brazil. According to data from the 2022 Census, there are 178 for each 100 thousand people. So that the “lagoinha” glasses – Belo Horizonte staple glasses - are not kept empty and to supply the constant demand of both bars and homes of the city, it is only natural that the beer production in Belo Horizonte is on the rise over the past few years, especially craft beers. Today the sector has around 30 factories in the local supply chain, bringing the attention of the national market both for quality and the creativity of its products. This also made the city be known as the “Brazilian Belgium”.

The rich local cuisine also fosters the event sector. More than 70 gastronomy festivals happen every year, delighting the local eaters and visitors alike. “Comida de Buteco” is one of the most important, celebrating the bar and snacks culture of the region. “Festival Fartura” highlights the riches of mineira cuisine, exploring local ingredients and culinary traditions. Other events on the capital worth mentioning are the International Coffee Week, the Craft Minas Cheese Festival and Expocachaça, nationally renowned and strong contributors to the culinary culture effervescence of the city.

Strategically, Belo Horizonte develops its gastronomy as a Municipal Policy, developing actions towards qualifying peoples in social vulnerability and trans individuals. They stimulate the self-esteem of individuals and promote food culture, the ways of cooking and knowledge. They are initiatives that stimulate the development of the sector and guarantee that the local cuisine is kept alive at the tables and in the hearts. Expocachaça, reconocidos a nivel nacional y fuertes contribuyentes a la efervescencia de la cultura culinaria de la ciudad.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS OF BELO HORIZONTE

CULTURAL AND CONTEMPLATIVE TOURS

Belo Horizonte is the Brazilian capital with the best indexes of cultural consumption and frequency of cultural activities. (Instituto Datafolha), and there are options for every taste. The city houses, for example, the Circuito Liberdade. The largest cultural complex of its kind in Latin America, the circuit has 17 institutions located around the hundred-years-old Praça da Liberdade, with music, literature, arts, cinema, mineralogy, sciences, astronomy, entrepreneurship and gastronomy settings. One of the highlights is Centro Cultural Banco do Brasil (CCBB), one of the 100 most visited museums in the world (The Art Newspaper magazine).

The architectural ensemble of Praça da Estação and the Urban Art Overlook at Sapucaí Street are must-see stops for those who want to alternate the cultural tour across the Minas Gerais capital. At Mangabeiras neighborhood, the contemplative scenery of the highest points of the city are worth appreciating, such as Praça do Papa.

PAMPULHA

Landmark of Modernism and the start of Oscar Niemeyer's career, the Pampulha Modern Ensemble – Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO – is composed by Pampulha Art Museum, Casa do Baile, late Tênis Clube, São Francisco de Assis church, and the water mirror of the Pampulha Lake. A touristic and cultural icon, it is one of the most popular locations among citizens and visitors.

INHOTIM

Instituto Inhotim is the headquarters of one of the most relevant collections of contemporary artworks in the world and considered the largest open-air art center in Latin America. Located in Brumadinho, just 60 km from Belo Horizonte, its botanical collection gathers rare species from all continents.

SHOPPING AND ENTERTAINMENT

Referenced as a shopping center and comparable to the greatest international centers, Belo Horizonte attracts visitors from different regions, interested in crafts, fashion, precious and semi-precious gems, as well as essential consumer products. Fashion brands from all over the world and the best in the national production are present in the most varied and diversified locations.

Grande Hotel Ronaldo Fraga is one such place. Opened in 2015, it was created and conceived by the fashionist Ronaldo Fraga and since then is a reference touristic point for those who look for fashion, gastronomy, culture and history in the city. Differently from what most think, it is not really a hotel, but a gallery that hosts guests from several authentic and unique brands, individually chosen by the curator and co-owner Ivana Neves.

One other option for those into shopping is Arts, Crafts and Variety Produces Fair – popularly known as Feira da Afonso Pena or Feira Hippie. Economic, cultural and touristic reference of the capital, the fair is set on Sundays, from 8am to 2pm between Praça Sete and Guajajaras Street. It is divided in 15 sectors related to the products on showcase, including special food courts.

STRUCTURE AND SERVICE

MEANS OF ACCOMODATION

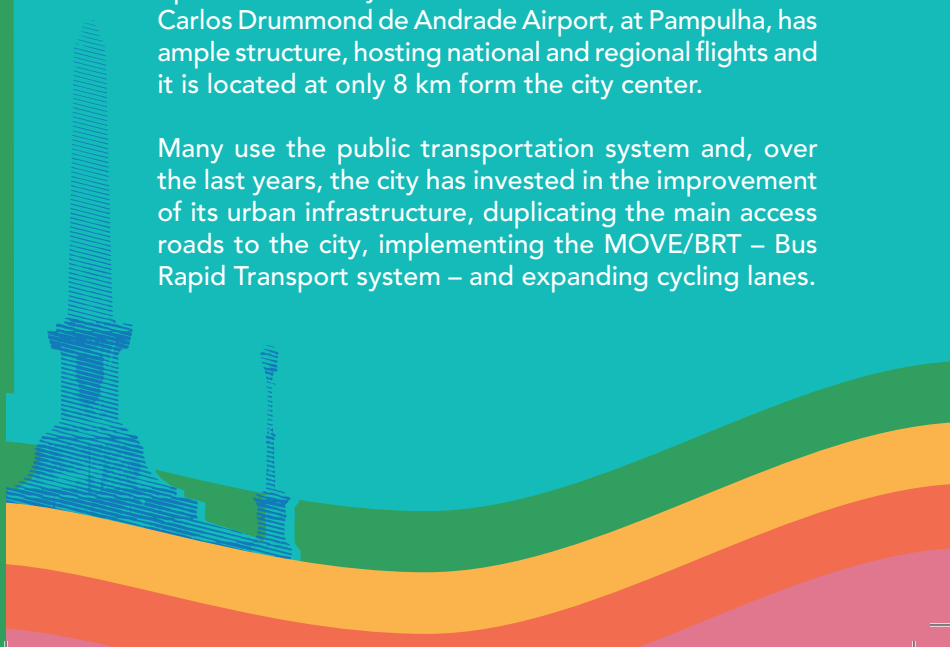

Belo Horizonte has renewed its hotel sector, which caters for all tastes. Its modern hotel system spans over 120 businesses of the most diverse categories, making over 20 thousand rooms available for events with competitive rates. For more information and the location of our accommodations, visit:

ACCESSIBILITY AND TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM

Belo Horizonte's International Airport – BH Airport – has become an important hub for Brazilian air traffic. The airport has daily flights to the main destinations of the country and direct flights to the Americas and Europe operated both by national and international carriers. Carlos Drummond de Andrade Airport, at Pampulha, has ample structure, hosting national and regional flights and it is located at only 8 km form the city center.

Many use the public transportation system and, over the last years, the city has invested in the improvement of its urban infrastructure, duplicating the main access roads to the city, implementing the MOVE/BRT – Bus Rapid Transport system – and expanding cycling lanes.
